Perfect Games

The earliest perfect shooting game on record was recorded on Feb. 4, 2003 by sophomore David Nurse of Kearney in his team's 72-58 win at Ruskin. Nurse was 8-for-8 from the field, including a perfect 5-for-5 effort from three-point range and was also 10-for-10 at the free throw line contributing to a 31-point effort in the contest.

Poplar Bluff standout Tyler Hansbrough also had a perfect shooting game on January 18, 2004 in the Third-Place Game of the Bass Pro Tournament of Champions at Hammons Student Center on the campus of Missouri State University in Springfield. The junior went 12-for-12 from the field (including 2-for-2 from beyond the arc) and 9-for-9 from the free throw line in the contest against Kickapoo. He finished with 35 points, 13 rebounds and 5 assists.

Matt Fouch of LaPlata went 10-for-10 from the field, including 6-for-6 from three-point range, in a game at Bucklin on Dec. 8, 2006.

early era shutout . . .

Marshfield blanked Seymour 41-0 in a game at Marshfield on January 20, 1921 in the first known shutout in Missouri boys basketball history.

snapping the streak . . .

With a 59-51 win at Wheaton on January 10, 2006, Exeter snapped a 182-game varsity losing streak that dated back to December 15, 1996.

noteworthy FT Pct. . . .

Troy Buchanan made 43-of-48 free throws (.896) in a game against Winfield on Jan. 22, 1987. This effort does not qualify for the single-game top 20, but the team's overall accuracy and number of attempts in this game makes this worthy of mention.
