

MSHSAA LEADERSHIP SCHOOLS

The following schools have applied and have qualified to be recognized as "MSHSAA Leadership Schools" for the 2009-10 school year:

Bernard C. Campbell Middle School	Liberal High School
Bingham Middle School	Lindbergh High School*
Blue Springs High School*	Marquette High School
Blue Springs South High School	Monett High School
Bolivar Middle School*	Northwest (Cedar Hill) High School
Bridger Middle School	Nowlin Middle School
Center Middle School	Pacific High School
Central (Springfield) High School	Parkview High School
Community High School	Pembroke Hill High School*
Concordia High School	Pioneer Ridge Middle School
DeSoto Junior High School	Platte County High School
Excelsior Springs High School	Pleasant Hill High School
Fox High School	Pleasant Lea Middle School
Francis Howell North High School	Polo High School
Glendale High School	Raymore-Peculiar High School
Grain Valley High School	Salem High School
Highland High School	Seckman High School
Hillcrest High School	Sikeston High School
Hillsboro Junior High School	St. Francis Borgia High School
Holden High School	Stewartsville High School
Holt High School	Sullivan High School
Joplin High School	Sullivan Middle School
Kickapoo High School	Summit Lakes Middle School
Lafayette County High School	Truman High School
Lafayette County Junior High School	Vianney High School
Lamar High School	Villa Duchesne High School
Lebanon High School	Waynesville High School
Lee's Summit High School	Westminster Christian Academy
Lee's Summit North High School	William Chrisman High School
Lee's Summit West High School	Winfield High School
Leeton High School

* The four schools marked have been "MSHSAA Leadership Schools" each year since the program began.