PROSE READING (8 Minutes Speaking Time)

- a. A list of participants in each event shall be posted. Participants will perform in the order in which their names appear on the list. If unable to do so because of a schedule conflict, the coach shall contact the tournament manager for an adjustment in the schedule.
- b. The student entering Prose Reading shall:
 - i. Read prose from published and copyrighted literature. The participant shall have available on site access to the original source of the selection in case material is challenged.
 - ii. Prepare an introduction (and transitions, if needed) to the selection or selections; title(s) and author(s) of all selections must be identified.
 - iii. Select material from sources other than plays, poetry, verse or novels written in verse, which includes less than 50% dialogue.
 - iv. Make the printed page "come alive" for his/her audience.
- c. Although the material should be well in mind, it shall not be memorized and shall be read from the printed page with occasional eye contact. The student shall stand in place except for minor stance alterations. The student shall communicate an appreciation of the literature he/she is reading.
- d. Students should develop original interpretation of their selections.
- e. The time limit shall be not more than eight minutes, including introductions and transitions.
- f. Judging Criteria:
 - i. Introduction: Did the introduction serve a useful purpose?
 - ii. Comprehension: Did the student appear to have an understanding of the meaning, mood and emotion of the selection or selections?
 - iii. Delivery: Although the material should be well in mind, it shall not be memorized and shall be read from the printed page. Was the student's voice suited to the selection? Did it indicate lively imagination and sympathy for the mood of the material, or did it fall into a tone and/or rhythm pattern? Was pronunciation correct? Enunciation clear-cut? Did bodily action contribute to the interpretation?
- g. ELECTRONICS USE: The use of Tablets and E-Reader's, without sound or video capabilities, are permitted in Prose Reading.
- h. A violation of any rule/regulation for this event will result in disqualification from the event. Any official protest of a disqualification shall be directed to and ruled upon by the tournament grievance committee who has the authority to overturn a disqualification.

NOTE: Oral critiques are not permitted.

NOTE: In finals, judges may allow a grace period for audience reaction.

Timekeepers shall adhere strictly to the time schedule and shall notify the judge when a contestant exceeds the time limit rather than stopping the performance. Time cards should be used to indicate time remaining to the performer for all events except one-act plays and readers theatre. Contestants who exceed the time limit may be penalized by the lowering of the contestant's speaking rank by one or more places in the final rankings for that round and is to be determined by the judge's discretion.

NOTE: THERE IS NO BUILT IN 30 SECONDS GRACE PERIOD. THE TIME LIMIT IS CLEARLY STATED IN EACH EVENT'S JUDGING REGULATIONS PRINTED IN THE MANUAL. In finals, judges may allow a grace period for audience reaction.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR JUDGES

NOTE: If a timekeeper is not present to start the round, DO NOT delay the start of the round. Start the round on time.

- A. Each event shall have at least one judge, and each event shall have a timekeeper. If a coach refuses to judge, the coach's school team shall be disqualified.
- B. Judges in any event are to use the standard critic evaluation form for that event, as published by the MSHSAA and provided by the tournament director. A judge shall evaluate each performance independently and shall not collaborate with other judges when assigning rankings or ratings.
- C. Ratings which will appear on the standard critic form are defined as follows: Excellent--shall represent an outstanding performance. (The number of excellent ratings given shall not be limited by the number qualifying for state competition. Qualification for state competition is determined by the ranking provided the manager by the judge and not by whether or not the performance received an excellent rating.) Superior--shall represent a performance that is outstanding in many but not all respects. Good--shall represent a good performance that may be above average in some respects and below average in others, but not outstanding in any respect. Average--shall represent a performance that is poor in some respects and not above average in any respect. Below Average--shall represent a performance that is poor in most respects.
- D. No judge is to designate any rank for the purpose of making an award of any type other than provided for in this manual.
- E. Each judge in the district/state speech and one-act play events shall be provided a certification ranking form for each event judged. The judge shall rank the contestants in each event judged.
- F. Oral critiques are not permitted.
- G. In finals, judges may allow a grace period for audience reaction
- H. After the last presentation in an event, the timekeeper or the judge shall take the completed evaluation forms in a sealed envelope to the tournament director who shall record the ranks, ratings, and post the results.
- I. Judges shall keep in mind that they are judging high school students and not college or professional groups. The judge's comments should be presented so that they provide an educational experience. Specific suggestions should be written on the individual evaluation forms to help make the ratings meaningful and in such a way that the student is encouraged to try to do better the next time.
- J. Judges shall consult evaluative criteria for the events they are to judge. A violation of the regulations for the event shall be noted to the manager.
- K. Judges of individual events at the state tournaments shall rank and rate each contestant in the two preliminary rounds. The eight performers with the lowest rankings at the end of the two preliminary rounds will qualify for a final round.
- L. A critic shall not attempt to recruit high school speech students participating in district or state events. The Board of Directors is opposed to any recruiting of high school students during the time a tournament is in progress because of the possibility that this distracting may affect the student's performance.
