

MSHSAA Public Domain Music Guide

The Use of Computer Printed Public Domain Music

The emergence of available public domain music on <http://www.imsip.org/> for orchestral works and on http://www1.cpd.org/wiki/index.php/Main\_Page for choral works has caused some confusion for directors when wanting to use these works for festival performances. It is acceptable to use these works if the director provides the correct documentation.

HOW TO PROVIDE COPYRIGHT DOCUMENTATION FOR PUBLIC DOMAIN CHORAL WORKS

The following statement printed at the bottom of the desired selection will satisfy the copyright requirement when selecting a work from the CPDL website for use at an MSHSAA music festival.

Copyright © 1999 by the Choral Public Domain Library (<http://www.cpd.org>)
Edition may be freely distributed, duplicated, performed, or recorded. ed. 6/11/99

NOTE: Not all selections or files appearing on the CPDL may have this information. Works appearing with the earth symbol are from external sites and the music director will need to contact those sites to confirm the copyright status for that selection.

HOW TO PROVIDE COPYRIGHT DOCUMENTATION FOR PUBLIC DOMAIN ORCHESTRAL WORKS

When selecting an orchestral work from <http://www.imslp.org/>, the director must check to see if the work is actually a public domain work in the United States.

If the work is NOT a public domain work in the United States, it will be shown just under the download link:

Concerto Grosso No.1 (Bloch, Ernest)

This work may not be in the public domain in the US (due to first publication with the required notice after 1922) in the EU and those countries where hosted) and in other countries (China, Japan, S. Korea) where the copyright term is life+50 years.

Please obey the copyright laws of your country. IMSLP does not assume any sort of legal responsibility or liability for the consequen
