PLEASE NOTE: Each round of the tournament shall begin at the designated time. Teams not ready to compete at the designated time will forfeit. A forfeit will be determined by the judges in the room where the team arriving late is scheduled to compete. The only exception will be if the late arriving team's preceding game was an overtime game, to the extent that the team was unable to report to its next game. This should not occur because the time schedule of the tournament has been designed to allow for overtime games.
